CROWN'S AUSSIE MILLIONS POKER CHAMPIONSHIP

In 2012, Crown's Aussie Millions Poker Championship will be celebrating its prestigious tenth anniversary.

Outside of the World Series of Poker, Crown's Aussie Millions is regarded as one of the best poker Championships in the world. With the consistent and comprehensive suite of the game's most popular variations, increased high-stakes cash-game action along with the world's most high-profile players, the route to Down Under has become a familiar one for poker's elite.

Held over a period of three weeks during the peak of the Australian Summertime, more than 3,000 players are expected to take part in over 26 Championship Events, encompassing several popular poker variations that will see the world's greatest players tangle with online qualifiers, cashed up locals and the odd celebrity.

The large prize-pools, the widely-cherished and universally-revered diamond-encrusted gold bracelet, representing the game's ultimate achievement, have always provided substantial incentive to travel to this Great Southern Land.

With countless satellite tournaments held during the year and during the event, players are offered multiple chances at winning a place in Crown's coveted Aussie Millions 'Main Event' for a fraction of the AU$10,600 buy-in.

Reigning 2011 Aussie Millions Champion, David Gorr was a regular player in Crown's 3-Phase Satellite before scooping the title and AU$2,000,000 first prize.

In addition to the AU$100,000 Challenge, the 2012 Aussie Millions will see the return of the AU$250,000 super-high-roller event, after 20 players took part in the inaugural event in January, creating a serious prize-pool of AU$5,000,000.

Making it all happen behind the scenes will be over 6,500 members of staff, including 384 poker dealers, 62 game supervisors, 30 pit bosses and 20 operations staff, along with the 20,000,000 hands of poker that have been dealt at Crown's Aussie Millions over the past ten years.

PAST CHAMPIONS

The new king of poker was crowned on 25 January, when Australian Stewart Scott was the first Aussie ever to win the No-Limit Holdem Main Event during the 2009 Aussie Millions Poker Championship. After playing a marathon session at the final table that lasted 12 hours, 36-year-old Scott from northern New South Wales walked away with a cool AUD $2 Million for his efforts, the largest prize ever awarded in a live poker tournament in the Southern Hemisphere.

2003 CHAMPION

At the opening day launch of the Main Event, 2005 WSOP Champion and Crown Ambassador Joe Hachem threw down the challenge to all of his fellow countrymen that entered this tournament "I think it's about time an Aussie took home the title", said Hachem. "Get your acts together!". Stewart Scott obviously took this to heart, surviving a 681-player field loaded with top tournament pros, internet qualifiers and world champions, claiming the chip lead at the end of Day 4 and holding it throughout the final days play.

After the final, life-changing hand, Scott scooped up all of the cash on the table and let it fall through his fingers. His wife was let onto the set. Scott picked her up in a long embrace, spun her through the air, and gave her a kiss. American Peter Rho played amazing poker and held his own against some of the best players in the world, busted out in second place winning a tidy AUD$1 Million.
